Second Sunday after Epiphany

January 14, 2024

All the baptized have a calling in God's world. God calls not just the clergy but also the youngest child, like Samuel. The story of the calling of Nathanael plays with the idea of place. Nathanael initially dismisses Jesus because he comes from Nazareth. But where we come from isn't important; it's where—or rather whom—we come to. Jesus refers to the story of the vision of Jacob, who called the place of his vision "the house of God, and ... the gate of heaven" (Gen. 28:17). Jesus says he himself is the place where Nathanael will meet God.

BELL, ANNOUNCEMENTS & TEMPLE TALK

*OPENING HYMN

"Listen, God is Calling"

*CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Brothers and sisters in Christ, it is in Baptism that we are first reconciled to God, and through Baptism that we hear the call to be reconciled to one another. Joined to Christ in the waters of Baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness, and marked with the cross of Christ forever.

We belong to Christ in whom we have been baptized.

Although we are set free to live in love and faithfulness, we continue to turn away from God and from one another. Confessing our sin involves a continuing return to our baptism where our sinful self is drowned and we are raised up again to new life in Christ. Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination

Have mercy on us, O God, according to your lovingkindness.

In your great mercy, wash away our iniquity and cleanse us from our sin.

Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. (Psalm 51:1,11)

Forgive us for the wrong we have done and for the good we have failed to do toward both you and our neighbor. Send us the grace our spirits need.

Amen

People of God, by water and the Holy Spirit God gives us a new birth, and through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God forgives our sins. Almighty God strengthen us in all goodness and keep us in eternal life. Amen

*GREETING

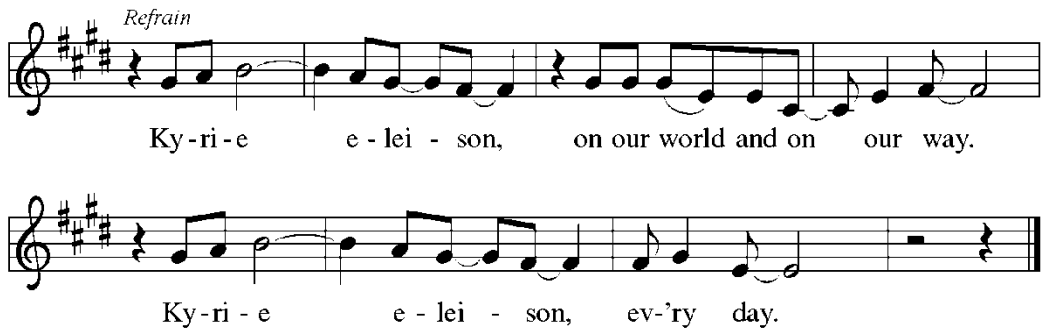

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

*KYRIE

All:

Refrain

Ky-ri - e e - lei - son, on our world and on our way.

Ky-ri - e e - lei - son, ev-'ry day.

Verses - Leader:

1. *For peace in the world, for the health of the church, for the unity of all;
For this holy house, for all who worship and praise,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (Refrain)*
2. *That we may live out your impassioned response to the hungry and the poor;
That we may live out truth and justice and grace,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (Refrain)*
3. *For peace in our hearts, for peace in our homes, for friends and family;
For life and for love, for our work and our play,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (Refrain)*
4. *For your Spirit to guide; that you center our lives in the water and the word;
That you nourish our souls with your body and blood,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (Refrain)*

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, most merciful redeemer, for the countless blessings and benefits you give. May we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day praising you, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

FIRST READING

1 Samuel 3:1–20

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

²At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; ³the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. ⁴Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" ⁵and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. ⁶The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." ⁷Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. ⁸The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. ⁹Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening." ¹¹Then the LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. ¹²On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. ¹³For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. ¹⁴Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever."

¹⁵Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. ¹⁶But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." He said, "Here I am." ¹⁷Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you." ¹⁸So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."

¹⁹As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 139 selected verses – please read responsively

You have searched me out and known me, O Lord.

You know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways.

Every word on my lips is known to you, O Lord.

You encompass me, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

You created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I will thank you because I am marvelously made;

your works are wonderful, and I know them well.

Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; my days were fashioned before they came to be.

How deep I find your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them!

If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand;

to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 6:12–20

¹²All things are lawful for me, but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be dominated by anything. ¹³Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food, and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall be one flesh." ¹⁷But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

*HOLY GOSPEL

John 1:43-51

The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 1st chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord!

⁴³The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." ⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." ⁴⁶Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." ⁴⁷When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" ⁴⁸Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." ⁴⁹Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" ⁵⁰Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." ⁵¹And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ!

PROFESSION OF FAITH – Apostles Creed and St. Martin’s Mission Statement

As the people of God building the Welcome Place, we confess the faith of the Church as the values by which we live, the faith in which we welcome all people, the faith in which we baptize.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again; He ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

As a church commanded by our Lord to make disciples of all nations, we confess our mission according to the Word of God. Called to make disciples, we are Welcoming friends and strangers with God’s love.

Called to teach all that our Lord commanded, we are Working to build deeper relationships with Jesus.

Called to go out to serve all nations, we are

Witnessing to share God’s love with everyone

As a church led by the biblical vision that we should all be united by our faith and understanding of the Son of God, to become mature, and completely like Jesus (Ephesians 4:11-13), we affirm God’s vision for us.

We shall be people serving one real God, living one real faith, making one real difference.

Together we have made profession of this vision grounded in the faith of the Church.

In Building the Welcome Place, we pray for the gifts of the Spirit upon us all.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit. Amen. (Galatians 5:22-23)

 SHARING OF THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you.

(We greet one another with the words “Peace be with you”)

* THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

WE ARE SENT TO SERVE

* BENEDICTION

As you go on your way may Christ go with you.

Christ before you to lead you;

Christ behind you to encourage you;

Christ beside you to befriend you;

Christ above you to watch over you;

Christ within you to give you peace.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

2024 Stewardship Campaign of St. Martin's Lutheran Church

Connect | Relate | Offer | Study | Serve

24 Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. – Matthew 16:24

Stewardship. It's what we do with what God has given us. And God has given us a lot, so a lot of things can fall under the umbrella of stewardship. Over the next several months, we are going to highlight a few of them. Each month, we will focus on something different that God has given us and different ways that we can use that gift. There will be no collected responses, no pledges and no expectations, save one – that you be honest with yourself and where God might be calling you. None of us were perfect stewards before this campaign and none will be so after, either. But if we are all honest with ourselves, we can all be better ones if we take up our cross.

Month	Letter	Theme	What does that mean?
January	C	Connect	Use the opportunities we are given to have authentic connection with God
February	R	Relate	Use the community we are given to help others up as well as ourselves
March	O	Offer	Use the resources we are given to bless others as we have been blessed
April	S	Study	Use the Word we are given to better know God
May	S	Serve	Use the talents we are given to be the hands and feet of God

Worship with the church regularly

Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy Exodus 20:8

✕ Worship with the church regularly

Oftentimes when we discuss the third commandment, the focus is on the day of rest. For a moment, let's look at it from the "keeping it holy" perspective. The Bible is filled with examples of people falling down and worshipping God. Some examples come after wondrous events such as the great flood. But others are examples of regular worship. The believers in Acts 2 met daily to praise God.

Talk to God

Worshipping with others should not be a matter of convenience. It shouldn't be when we have no other conflicts, when we were able to get to bed early enough or when we couldn't get a tee time. We should make it a priority in our lives – to reflect the importance our faith has.

Listen to God

Regular worship with the church offers many benefits including fellowship, accountability and different perspectives on the Lord's word. But your attendance is not only for your benefit. As fellow believers in the Body of Christ, we are all interdependent. You are needed by the church just as you need the church. You were blessed with a unique combination of abilities, gifts and experiences that no one else can provide. So just as there is a God shaped hole in each of us, there is a you shaped hole in the church. Come and fill it – and connect with God in new and wondrous ways.
