MARCH 29, 2026

PALM SUNDAY ☩ SUNDAY OF THE PASSION — March 29, 2026

On this day, the Church celebrates Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem before he was betrayed and handed over to be crucified. We begin our service with shouts of "Hosanna" (meaning: "Lord, save us") and gradually turn our thoughts to his suffering and death as we prepare for Holy Week.

Regular text spoken by the Worship Leader
Congregational response in the bold print

THE CONGREGATION STANDS* AND JOINS THE CALL TO WORSHIP AS IT BEGINS.

*CALL TO WORSHIP – Please Stand and face the back of the sanctuary

Hosanna to the Son of David!
Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna in the highest! (the above lines are repeated as necessary)
Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them high you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in. (Psalm 24)

*MATTHEW 21:1-11 – please participate in the reading by responding with the bold print

When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 2saying to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. 3If anyone says anything to you, just say this, 'The Lord needs them.' And he will send them immediately." 4This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

5"Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey."

6The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; 7they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. 8A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting,

"Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

10When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?" 11The crowds were saying,

"This is Jesus of Nazareth in Galilee."

* PROCESSIONAL HYMN "All Glory, Laud and Honor"

Please wave your palm branches as we sing the hymn

*Prayer of the Day

Hosanna to the Son of David!

Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!

We praise you, O God, for your redemption of the world through our Lord Jesus Christ. Today he entered the holy city in triumph and was proclaimed Messiah and King by those who spread garments and branches along his way. Bless these branches and those who carry them. Grant us grace to follow him in the way of the cross, so that, dying and rising with him, we enter into your kingdom; through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen!

Welcome & Announcements

First Reading — Zechariah 9:9-12

9 Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion!
Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem!
See, your king comes to you,
righteous and having salvation,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
10 I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the war-horses from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken.
He will proclaim peace to the nations.
His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.
11 As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit.
12 Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope;
even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading — Isaiah 50:4-9a

4 The Sovereign LORD has given me words of wisdom, so that I know how to comfort the weary.
Morning by morning he wakens me and opens my understanding to his will.
5 The Sovereign LORD has spoken to me,
and I have listened.
I have not rebelled or turned away.
6 I offered my back to those who beat me and my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard.
I did not hide my face from mockery and spitting.
7 Because the Sovereign LORD helps me,
I will not be disgraced.
Therefore, I have set my face like a stone, determined to do his will.
And I know that I will not be put to shame.
8 He who gives me justice is near.
Who will dare to bring charges against me now?
Where are my accusers? Let them appear!
9 See, the Sovereign LORD is on my side!
Who will declare me guilty?

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THIRD READING — Philippians 2:5-11

5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus; 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, 7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, 8 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death — even death on a cross.
9 Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE — Caleb Wyse

MESSAGE — "Leading or Following?"

*Gospel Reading — Matthew 27:11-26

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 27th chapter

Glory to you, O Lord.

11Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You say so.” 12But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer. 13Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?” 14But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

15Now at the festival the governor was accustomed to release a prisoner for the crowd, anyone whom they wanted. 16At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Jesus Barabbas. 17So after they had gathered, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?” 18For he realized that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over. 19While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, “Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for today I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about him.” 20Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed. 21The governor again said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.” 22Pilate said to them, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?” All of them said, “Let him be crucified!” 23Then he asked, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Let him be crucified!”

24So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took some water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood; see to it yourselves.” 25Then the people as a whole answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!” 26So he released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

While he was in the form of God, he did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped,

But he made himself nothing, and took on the very nature of a servant.

Being born in human likeness and being found in human form he humbled himself.

And he became obedient to death—even death on a cross.

(Philippians 2:6-8)

*HYMN OF THE DAY

"Jesus I Will Ponder Now"

*Prayer on The Way of the Cross

Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." In the name of Jesus, we pray:
Lord, help us to take up our cross and follow you.

You stood before Pilate, your life condemned, your word rejected, innocence ignored:
Keep us from rejecting your word of truth and salvation.

You carried your cross on the wounds of your back, for love of us and for all the world.
Help us to bear our cross, for love of you and for love of others.

The weight of your cross was the weight of our sins which make us stumble and fall.
In our weakness, we turn to you for strength.

Although you suffered, you still reached out to care for your mother.
May our cross-bearing never keep us from caring for our families.
(Silence for personal prayer)

As you struggled to bear your cross to Calvary, a passerby was drafted to help you.
Make us as ready as Simon to bear the burdens of those in need.

Others also took risks to comfort you.
Strengthen our faith to take loving risks for our needy brothers and sisters.
(Silence for personal prayer)

Sin weighed heavily upon you as you stumbled along the way.
Forgive us, Lord, for the sins which make us fall.

Your suffering under the cross caused the women of Jerusalem to weep.
Make our suffering in life a share in your suffering.

The full burden of our sin crushed you mightily to the earth.
Do not forsake us in our falling, but bring us to repentance and faith.
(Silence for personal prayer)

Stripped and jeered, you endured humiliation without complaint.
Humble us in our work and daily lives.

Nailed to the cross, you took your place among the condemned.
Take your place beside us sinners, and bring us through faith to the paradise of God.
(Silence for personal prayer) →

When your sacrifice was complete, you handed your life to the Father.
Keep us close to your cross, now and at the hour of our death.

Faithful friends and loving women took loving care of your lifeless body.
Turn the darkness of death into the brightness of day for those we love.
(Silence for personal prayer)

In the tomb you were laid, but from the tomb you arose.
Be the Lord of the resurrection for us.

Loving Jesus, for the sake of your cross and passion, we are justified in faith, cleansed of our sins by baptism and repentance, and made one with God. We thank you for your cross and for the depths of your love for us. Help us to bear our cross in the world and follow you until you bring us into your heavenly kingdom; where you reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen

*SHARING OF THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
And also with you.
(Please greet one another with the words, "Peace be with you.")

OFFERING OF GIFTS

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

Is there anybody here who loves my Jesus?
Anybody here who loves my Lord?
I want to know if you love my Jesus;
I want to know if you love my Lord.

"IS THERE ANYBODY HERE?"

This world's a wilderness of woe,
so let us all to glory go
When I was blind and could not see,
King Jesus brought the light to me.

*Eucharistic Prayer

We give you thanks, heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, your beloved Son; who on the tree of the cross gave salvation to all, that where death began, there life might be restored, and that he, who by a tree once overcame, might by a tree be overcome.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

For as often as we eat this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able; we ask you to accept our praise and with the Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants and these your gifts of bread and wine, so that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace, and, receiving the forgiveness of sin, may be formed to live as your people and be given our inheritance with all your saints.

To you, O God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory in your holy church, now and forever.

Amen

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Communion Distribution "Lamb of God"

"Beneath the Cross of Jesus"

 BLESSING

The body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.

Amen

 SENDING

O God, your Son chose the path which led to pain before joy and the cross before glory.

Plant his cross in our hearts, so that in its power and love we may come at last to joy and glory.

As we now enter into the contemplation of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ and his salvation of the world, let us gather around the cross of Christ. May our hearts again be opened to the story of God's love.

Amen.

WORSHIP MATTERS

Our opening hymn is "All Glory, Laud and Honor"… In the ninth century, Theodulph, bishop of Orleans, was imprisoned for suspected political scheming. Legend has it that in 821 on Palm Sunday, Theodulph watched from his jail cell as the traditional palm procession passed through the city streets. He composed "All Glory Laud and Honor" as his own participation in the processions. The words that Christians have sung for over 1,000 years proclaim the palm procession as the beginning of the Passion.

This Sunday has two names, Palm Sunday & Sunday of the Passion. At the beginning of worship, we celebrate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem with palm waving and shouts of "Hosanna". As we move through worship the mood changes and we look ahead to the events of Holy Week.

Worship includes the celebration of Communion today. We will be distributing communion in a continuous fashion. As you come forward you will receive the bread and then you can move to the side to receive the wine. Please pick up your own glass from the wine tray unless you need assistance. The center light-colored glasses are grape juice. Please place your empty glass in the basket as you return to your seat by the side aisle.*

One more AST session in the books…(After School Program)

1 John 3:16-20 – This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him? Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

And, once again, St. Martin's has shown our love with actions and truth, on Wednesday, March 18, during the second session, of the After School Tutoring (AST) ministry. Due to Spring Break, we had a (smaller than typical) group of 4 students. However, we had an abundance of volunteer tutors. Thank you, Jesus!

Of course, the convenience of our church van makes a great way to know when the students are arriving. Jake is an amazing chauffeur, and the students were extremely happy with the transportation as they unloaded with giant smiles, hanging up coats and book bags, followed by bathroom visits to wash hands before snack. A lively conversation was held during snack time with chicken nuggets and broccoli being one of the best. Once snack was finished, another trip to wash hands was made. (To my regret, a quick exercise break did not happen.) A short prayer was said, and students found their supply boxes on tables while tutors followed to assist a child of their choice.

Because of my memory lapse, one student had way too much energy, and a quick "wiggle and jiggle" session had to be made. A great conversation with a lot of steps helped, and the student returned to finish schoolwork. The other 3 students finished their work early and were escorted to the basement to be amazed by Ms. Susan's science project. (The 4th finished schoolwork with less "wiggles" and was able to join the basement group shortly thereafter.)

At 5 p.m. the kitchen crew informed us that their meals were ready, and they came back to the Fellowship Hall for their supper.

A side note and Thank You to Bridget Lovejoy for bringing a coat for one of the students that came with only a spring jacket, in snow weather on Wednesday. This is a ministry that we, as children of God, can all be proud of. (If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need…) The need was shown and we showed up!

These ministries take ALL of us here at St. Martin's working together for our congregation and our community. Thank you, Jesus, for giving us so many working, loving hands here in this place. AMEN!

FIRST COMMUNION CLASSES will be held at the end of April leading up to a First Communion on May 3. If you have a young person interested in First Communion, please contact Pastor Steve soon.

Join us for the Easter breakfast next Sunday at 8am! It is a free-will donation, and all proceeds go to the 2027 Youth Gathering.

Northwestern Ohio Synod Assembly is Saturday, May 30 at St. Mark's, Bowling Green. St. Martin's is allowed at least 2 voting members. A third voting member is allowed as a youth or young adult member. Please see Pastor Steve if you'd be willing to consider serving.

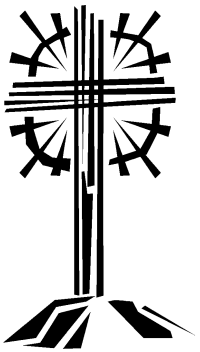
Holy Week & Easter

March 29 + Palm Sunday, 9am



Palm procession and the Sunday School students will sing. The tone of worship gradually shifts toward Holy Week.

April 2 + Maundy Thursday, 7:30pm

Worship will include Communion distributed at the rail and optional footwashing. Pastor Steve preaches with the theme "On the Night He was Betrayed" as we conclude our Lenten theme on the Lord's Prayer. Worship concludes with the removal of the Chancel furnishings and Altar paraments reminding us that Jesus was abandoned by the disciples and stripped of his dignity before his crucifixion.

April 3 + Good Friday, 7:30pm

Worship will follow a Tenebrae tradition of telling the story of Christ's crucifixion according to Matthew's gospel, prayer and music. The Chancel Choir and string orchestra will lead worship. The community is typically invited to this worship service, so please share the invitation.
